

I travel alot an use my satellite radio (XM) when I am on the road and at home. I would like to be able to receive traffic and weather channels while I am on the road so I don't have to turn to a local station in hopes of hearing the local traffic and weather reports when I tune to them. I like my XM Satellite Radio because I don't have listen to annoying comericels